NATIONAL ARCHIVES AND RECORD ADMINISTRATION FREEDMEN'S BUREAU PRESERVATION PROJECT

This National Archives microfilm publication is part of a multiyear project to microfilm the field office records of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands (Freedmen's Bureau). The project was made possible by the United States Congress through The Freedmen's Bureau Records Preservation Act of 2000 (Public Law 106-444). When completed, all of the field records for the States of Alabama, Arkansas, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, and for the District of Columbia will be available on microfilm. For microfilm availability and description, view both the microfilm catalog Black Studies: A Select Catalog of National Archives Microfilm Publications and the National Archives microfilm locator on our web site at www.archives.gov.

INTRODUCTION

On the 133 rolls of this microfilm publication, M1904, are reproduced the records of the Kentucky headquarters for the Assistant Commissioner and his staff officers and the subordinate field offices of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, 1865-1872. These records consist of bound volumes and unbound records, containing materials that include letters sent and received, monthly reports, registers of complaints, labor contracts, and other records relating to freedmen's claims and bounty payments. These records are part of the Records of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, Record Group (RG) 105.

HISTORY AND ORGANIZATION

The Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, also known as the Freedmen's Bureau, was established in the War Department by an act of Congress on March 3, 1865 (13 Stat. 507). The life of the Bureau was extended twice by acts of July 16, 1866 (14 Stat. 173), and July 6, 1868 (15 Stat. 83). The Bureau was responsible for the supervision and management of all matters relating to refugees and freedmen, and of lands abandoned or seized during the Civil War. In May 1865, President Andrew Johnson appointed Maj. Gen. Oliver Otis Howard as Commissioner of the Bureau, and Howard served in that position until June 30, 1872, when activities of the Bureau were terminated in accordance with an act of June 10, 1872 (17 Stat. 366). While a major part of the Bureau's early activities involved the supervision of abandoned and confiscated property, its mission was to provide relief and help freedmen become self-sufficient. Bureau officials issued rations and clothing, operated hospitals and refugee camps, and supervised labor contracts. In addition, the Bureau managed apprenticeship disputes and complaints, assisted benevolent societies in the establishment of schools, helped freedmen in legalizing marriages entered into during slavery, and provided transportation to refugees and freedmen who were attempting to reunite with their family or relocate to other parts of the country. The Bureau also helped black soldiers, sailors, and their heirs collect bounty claims, pensions, and back pay.

The act of March 3, 1865, authorized the appointment of Assistant Commissioners to aid the Commissioner in supervising the work of the Bureau in the former Confederate states, the border states, and the District of Columbia. While the work performed by Assistant Commissioners in each state was similar, the organizational structure of staff officers varied from state to state. At various times, the staff could consist of a superintendent of education, an assistant adjutant general, an assistant inspector general, a disbursing officer, a chief medical officer, a chief quartermaster, and a commissary of subsistence. Subordinate to these officers were the assistant superintendents, or subassistant commissioners as they later became known, who commanded the subdistricts.

The Assistant Commissioner corresponded extensively with both his superior in the

NATIONAL ARCHIVES AND RECORDS ADMINISTRATION
MICROFILM PUBLICATIONS

Washington Bureau headquarters and his subordinate officers in the subdistricts. Based upon reports submitted to him by the subassistant commissioners and other subordinate staff officers, he prepared reports that he sent to the Commissioner concerning Bureau activities in areas under his jurisdiction. The Assistant Commissioner also received letters from freedmen, local white citizens, state officials, and other non-Bureau personnel. These letters varied in nature from complaints to applications for jobs in the Bureau. Because the assistant adjutant general handled much of the mail for the Assistant Commissioner's office, it was often addressed to him instead of to the Assistant Commissioner.

In a circular issued by Commissioner Howard in July 1865, the Assistant Commissioners were instructed to designate one officer in each state to serve as "general Superintendents of Schools." These officials were to "take cognizance of all that is being done to educate refugees and freedmen, secure proper protection to schools and teachers, promote method and efficiency, correspond with the benevolent agencies which are supplying his field, and aid the Assistant Commissioner in making his required reports." In October 1865, a degree of centralized control was established over Bureau educational activities in the states when Rev. John W. Alvord was appointed Inspector of Finances and Schools. In January 1867, Alvord was divested of his financial responsibilities, and he was appointed General Superintendent of Education.

An act of Congress, approved July 25, 1868 (15 Stat. 193), ordered that the Commissioner of the Bureau "shall, on the first day of January next, cause the said bureau to be withdrawn from the several States within which said bureau has acted and its operation shall be discontinued." Consequently, in early 1869, with the exception of the superintendents of education and the claims agents, the Assistant Commissioners and their subordinate officers were withdrawn from the states.

For the next year and a half the Bureau continued to pursue its education work and to process claims. In the summer of 1870, the superintendents of education were withdrawn from the states, and the headquarters staff was greatly reduced. From that time until the Bureau was abolished by an act of Congress approved June 10, 1872 (17 Stat. 366), effective June 30, 1872, the Bureau's functions related almost exclusively to the disposition of claims. The Bureau's records and remaining functions were then transferred to the Freedmen's Branch in the office of the Adjutant General. The records of this branch are among the Bureau's files.

THE FREEDMEN'S BUREAU IN KENTUCKY

ORGANIZATION

From July 1865 until June 1866, Maj. Gen. C. B. Fisk served as Assistant Commissioner for both Kentucky and Tennessee. Fisk appointed Bvt. Brig. Gen. John Ely to serve as chief superintendent for the Bureau at Kentucky (from March to June 1866). Ely established his headquarters at Louisville, Kentucky, and divided his operations into five subdistricts: Lexington, Louisville, Northwestern, Southern, and Central. Records relating to Kentucky created prior to Ely's tenure may be included among the files of the Assistant Commissioner for Tennessee.

In June 1866, Maj. Gen. Jeff C. Davis was appointed as the first Assistant Commissioner for Kentucky. Superintendents (or subassistant commissioners) employed under Davis were generally responsible for from 3 to 11 counties, and agents (civilian and military) from 1 to 3 counties. Agents received their orders directly from superintendents, and all superintendents were required to submit monthly reports of their activities to the Assistant Commissioner. Brig. Gen. Sidney Burbank succeeded Davis in March 1867 and was replaced by Maj. Benjamin Runkle, who served from January 1869 to May 1869 as Assistant Commissioner and superintendent of education. In August 1870, when superintendents of education were withdrawn from the states, Runkle served as claims agent for Kentucky until July 1871. H. H. Ray succeeded Runkle as claims agent, and served in this capacity until December 1871. P. J. Overley became the claims agent in January 1872 and remained in this position until the Bureau's operations in Kentucky were discontinued in April. The major subordinate field offices for the Bureau at Kentucky included those with headquarters at Bowling Green, Lebanon, Lexington, Louisville, and Paducah. For a list of known Kentucky subordinate field office personnel and their dates of service, see the Appendix.

ACTIVITIES

While the Freedmen's Bureau did not begin full operations in Kentucky until June 1866, its activities in the state generally resembled those conducted in other Southern states. The Bureau supervised labor contracts between planters and freedmen, administered justice, assisted freedmen in the establishment of schools, helped freedmen legalize marriages, and worked with black soldiers and their heirs in processing claims relating to military service.

The regulation of written labor agreements between planters and freedmen was a major concern of the Freedmen's Bureau. In a circular issued on July 24, 1865 (Circular Number 2), Assistant Commissioner Fisk told his subordinates that for both Kentucky and Tennessee freedmen must be free to choose their own employers and that wages were to be based on supply and demand rather than a fixed rate. Bureau officials were to negotiate and approve labor contracts and enforce violations by either party. Compulsory unpaid labor was strictly prohibited. In some areas of Kentucky, planters refused to enter into written agreements with freedmen, and freedmen themselves were reluctant to enter into annual agreements for fear of being reduced to slavery. However, with strong reservations, Bureau officers negotiated monthly agreements for them but encouraged freedmen to sign annual contracts that offered yearlong employment. Wages for monthly contracts ranged from $8 to $10 a month for adult male field hands, well below the state's average wage of $15 a month for men. However by the summer of 1866, with the Bureau's insistence, adult laborers in the tobacco region of the state received $25 per month and laborers in the farm belt areas earned $12 per month. In some Kentucky counties, freedmen received a third of the crops rather than wages. However, because of the shortage of laborers in the state, freedmen were able to demand higher wages, and thus over time the sharecropping system became less attractive.<sup>1</sup>

The Bureau worked to protect the rights and legal status of freedmen, which, despite the ending of slavery by the 13th Amendment, were still endangered by the persistence of the old slave codes. On May 30, 1865, Commissioner Howard issued Circular Number 5, authorizing Assistant Commissioners to establish courts in states where the old codes existed and the right of blacks to testify against whites was prohibited. Gen. Fisk subsequently announced to the citizens of Kentucky that freedmen courts would operate in the state as long as freedmen weren't given the same rights as whites. By 1867, as a result of several Federal court rulings, Bureau courts ceased to operate in Kentucky. When state courts denied black testimony, the agency, under provisions of the Civil Rights Act of 1866, took cases involving freedmen to the U.S. District Court of Kentucky. In instances where freedmen lacked resources to pursue their cases in Federal court, the Bureau provided transportation for witnesses and other forms of assistance. Despite the Bureau's efforts to safeguard rights and secure justice for freedmen in Kentucky, admitting the testimony of blacks against whites still remained an issue in 1869 when Bureau Assistant Commissioners and their subordinates were withdrawn from the states. However, in January 1872, with a change in public opinion and pressure from the courts, the Kentucky State Legislature amended state law and allowed blacks to testify.

When Gen. John Ely began his duties as chief superintendent for Kentucky under Gen. Fisk's supervision, there were 30 freedmen schools and more than 2,000 students. The schools were organized and maintained by black churches, with black clergy as instructors. Freedmen schools faced widespread violence and white opposition, and in many cases, teachers and students were forced to abandon efforts to maintain school buildings. Ely and his subordinate assisted freedmen in reopening schools that had been forced to close.<sup>2</sup> Under Maj. Gen. Jeff C. Davis, who replaced Ely in the summer of 1866, the number of freedmen schools increased to 54, with some 67 teachers and more than 3,200 students. Excluding the schools established at Lexington and Covington under the auspices of the Cincinnati Branch of the Western Freedmen's Aid Society and the Cincinnati Branch of the American Missionary Association, the freedmen schools were taught by black teachers who were supported by subscriptions from parents and black religious institutions. The Bureau, however, rented the building for the school at Lexington. Under Brig. Gen. Sidney Burbank, who succeeded Davis in March 1867, the number of freedmen schools increased to 96, accommodating about 5,000 students aged 6-18. By

September 1868, in spite of continued violence and opposition, the Bureau had provided support for 135 day schools and 1 night school, serving more than 6,000 students.<sup>3</sup>

On February 14, 1866, the Kentucky State Legislature passed an act legalizing marriages freedmen had entered into during slavery and authorizing black ministers to solemnize such marriages. Nearly 2 weeks later, on February 26, 1866, Assistant Commissioner Fisk issued Circular Number 5, in accordance with the Kentucky law, directing those freedmen who sought to solemnize a marriage to the county clerk for a marriage license. If the county clerk refused to issue a license, Bureau officials in the subdistricts were authorized to solemnize marriages and issue marriage certificates. Local Bureau officers were required to maintain a register of freedmen marriages and forward a report of such marriages to the Assistant Commissioner at the end of each month. Subordinate Bureau officers were also told to notify persons living as man and wife who had not legalized their marriage, to report to the Bureau to take the necessary steps to do so. Persons who failed to comply were guilty of a misdemeanor and were to be punished by a fine and imprisonment.<sup>4</sup> This microfilm publication reproduces marriage licenses, certificates, and registers of marriages for the Kentucky subdistricts at Augusta, Bowling Green, Columbus, Cynthiana, Owensboro, Paducah, Mt. Sterling, and Winchester. A single freedmen marriage license and a marriage certificate from Kentucky, filed in the Bureau's headquarters records, has been reproduced on roll 1 of National Archives Microfilm Publication M1875, Marriage Records of the Office of the Commissioner, Washington Headquarters of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, 1861-1869.

In addition to assisting freedmen in solemnizing slave marriages and efforts to sustain the black family, the Bureau helped discharged soldiers, sailors, marines, and their heirs in claims for back pay, bounty payments, and pensions. In accordance with a law passed by Congress on March 29, 1867 (15 Stat. 26), making the Bureau the sole agent for payment of claims relating to black veterans, Bureau disbursing officers assisted freedmen in the preparation and settlement of military claims. In November 1866, in spite of the difficulties in locating veterans who fled the state for fear of violence, Assistant Commissioner Davis reported that he had forwarded more than 260 black soldiers' claims for back pay and bounty payments to Commissioner Howard's office in Washington, DC. In the following year, Assistant Commissioner Burbank reported that his office had assisted nearly 500 veterans with military claims, and in the fall of 1868, for the year ending October 10, 1868, that more than 1,100 received bounty payments through his office.<sup>5</sup>

RECORDS DESCRIPTION

These records consist of volumes and unbound records. The volumes reproduced in this microfilm publication were originally arranged by type of record and thereunder by volume number. No numbers were assigned to series consisting of single volumes. Years later, all volumes were arbitrarily assigned numbers by the Adjutant General's Office (AGO) of the War Department after the records came into its custody. In this microfilm publication, AGO numbers are shown in parentheses to aid in identifying the volumes. The National Archives assigned the volume numbers that are not in parentheses. In some volumes, particularly in indexes and alphabetical headings of registers, there are blank numbered pages that have not been filmed.

The volumes consist of letters and endorsements sent and received, press copies of letters sent, registers of letters received, letters and orders received, registers of freedmen court cases, special orders and circulars issued, registers of claimants, registers of complaints, marriage certificates, and monthly reports forwarded to the Assistant Commissioner. The unbound documents consist of letters and orders received, unregistered letters and narrative reports received, special orders and circulars issued, and general orders and circulars received. The unbound records also contain monthly reports; labor contracts; marriage certificates, and records relating to claims.

Some of the volumes contain more than one type of record, reflecting a common recording practice of clerks and staff officers of that period. On roll 93, for example, the volume of contracts for the Columbus field office also contains a register of marriages. Some other examples of additional series within volumes can be found in records on rolls 106, 123, and 133. Researchers should read carefully the records descriptions and arrangements in the Table of Contents to make full use of these documents.

RELATED RECORDS

In the same record group, RG 105, and related to records of the Bureau's field offices for Kentucky, are those of the Bureau headquarters in Washington, DC, and previously microfilmed records of the Assistant Commissioner and the superintendent of education for Tennessee. These record series are available in the following National Archives microfilm publications:

Records in other National Archives record groups supplement those of the Assistant Commissioner. In Records of United States Army Continental Commands, 1821-1920, RG 393, are records of the military district that included Kentucky. Records relating to employment and welfare of freedmen and abandoned property before the establishment of the Bureau are among Records of Civil War Special Agencies of the Treasury Department, RG 366. The records of the Freedman's Savings and Trust Company, 1865-1874, in Records of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, RG 101, contain information relating to former slaves who maintained accounts with bank branches in Kentucky.

Name Index to Registers of Letters Received

The single-volume name index, July 1871–April 1872 (13), is an index to volume (12) of the registers of letters received mentioned below.

Volume (13)	July 1871–Apr. 1872
-------------	---------------------

Registers of Letters Received

The twelve volumes of registers of letters received are dated March 1866–April 1872 (1–12). Entries in the first nine registers, March 1866–February 1870, are arranged alphabetically by initial letter of the surname of the correspondent and thereunder chronologically. However, each register does not contain all alphabetical divisions. For example, the “As” are in volumes (1), (3), and (9) only, and the “Gs” are in volumes (1), (2), (3), (6), and (9) only. The volume listings below show the initial letters of surnames included in each volume. The entries within each alphabetical division are numbered with a separate numerical sequence for each year, but don’t always span the time period listed below.

The last three registers, January 1870–April 1872, are arranged by time period. The entries in volumes 10 and 11 are arranged alphabetically by initial letter of the surname of the correspondent and thereunder in chronological order and numbered. The entries in volume 12, July 1871–April 1872, are arranged in chronological order and numbered with a separate numerical sequence for each year. The name index to volume 12 is volume (13) above. The letters received relating to the registers, March 1866–February 1872, are listed below.

BUTSON

...County Frauds, No. 12
...Freedmen's Bureau

of the Unconditional Union League, Washington, September 10, 1865. The Washington dispatch gives the outlines of a powerful Kentucky and Tennessee colored soldiers and their heirs receive the bounties and back pay due them from the government. The exposure is so well substantiated, the dispatch concluding it is exceedingly probable it will be confirmed. No names were published in connection with the affair, a few weeks since certain persons never heard of at this office, made it their business here to state, disseminated in Louisville had been there, and confidence of your office here, and that the officers referred to in the above dispatch, "received in those quarters," and that the "Rank and other now in the hands of the Federal Kentucky," "reports of similar particulars," "and the names of the persons in connection with the same," "made the publica-

1. He disclaims any connection whatever with any person in these purchases.

2. He was consulted by several persons in the recent purchase of the post office at Glasgow, and after examining the law, gave them the opinion that they could engage in it, as far as the law was concerned.

3. He has no connection with the various parties, he assumes to tell what they do and defend them for.

4. His single statement that at the time of the purchase of the scheme was created by the aid of an attorney, and that he could not be held responsible for it, is intended to protect his business, the complete and full history of this gigantic scheme to get possession of money the colored soldiers had saved from the war, and which was sent out the South, is as follows:—presented, as I have said, in the original communications now on file in the Freedmen's Bureau here.

These papers were sent to the Hon. General Howard, and every needed translation given by Mr. W. Drew, the youngest of the card of General Howard charging that the transactions in question were not sanctioned by the bureau.

After his publication, Mr. Drew was shown them. General Fairbridge omitted to send them to the Hon. General Howard, his brother, O. H. Burbridge, who addressed to him.

It is just to General Howard and Mr. Drew, to General Burbridge, and to their friends, to say that they were in the city of Tennessee, to say they were presenting papers, that no one conversant with the case from last to last can speak of them of the first of the year, and that the Hon. General Fairbridge made by the bureau officers in Kentucky and Tennessee to thwart the scheme were of the most persistent and energetic character, and that they were the only persons who were parties to the proposed fraud that they had authority from General Howard, and the bureau officers in Kentucky had paid claims for the purchase of the post office, and that statement, and they were only coiled as part of the machinery of the plot.

by General Burbank, with the following indorsement:

"Forwarded to Major General O. O. Howard, Commissioner, & Washington, D. C. Atten. Invited to Colonel Funkle's communication. The Colonel's letter is well written, and is of interest to you by outsiders, and there appears to be no reason why it should be excluded from the subject, and this is strongly recommended."

When the letter thus indorsed reached the office it required no further indorsement, in which the only actual signature of Colonel E. Whittlesley:

WAR DEPARTMENT, BUREAU OF F. AND I. WASHINGTON.

Respectfully returned. The imposition practiced in many of our newspapers in misrepresenting the evils any amendments to the Freedman, after being properly instructed, is a crime, and it is the duty of every citizen to see that he can not be prevented without restricting rights of free press."

(Signed) MAJOR GENERAL O. O. HOWARD

At the time the combination again applied to Gen. Runkle to know if he would consent to any claims as they desired. After a full and complete investigation of the matter, he said he would pay upon an order directing such payments from Washington. Gen. Runkle said he should be glad to do so.

Upon this O. H. Burbridge wrote the following letter to Gen. Howard, which Gen. Bursbridge probably forgot when he inserted his answer to it in the Commonwealth:

COMMISSIONER, KENTUCKY, 20, 1863.

from you on this subject, at your earliest convenience. I am not sure that you have not already received from me the necessary papers, but I will send you the necessary forms, and will be glad to discuss the matter with you. I am, very respectfully, (Signed) O. H. BERNARD.

This letter, it will be observed, was written after the receipt of your letter, and attempts to procure authority to do exactly what the letter affects to condemn.

To this communication, O. H. has now received a reply from the publisher, published in the card of his brother, but with the name of the person receiving it suppressed. This reply was as follows:

WAR DEPARTMENT,
BUREAU OF P. & A. LINDS-COAST DIVISION,
WASHINGTON, D. C. AUGUST 15, 1898.

SIR:—I am directed to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 10th inst., requesting that authority be given to the Publisher (offer for Keeney) to make use of the photograph of the Keeney actually made here to instruments (your presentation of "a photograph of the Keeney") in the receipt in return a receipt in kind, signed in the presence of two loyal citizens, and in the presence of the Clerk of the Court, the individual, and both attested by the Clerk of the Court, Notary or Justice of the Peace.

As the Keeney has been paid for in the payment of certificates this Bureau can not withhold the photograph of the Keeney, but will accept the following of attorneys, the material fee, and such amounts as have been actually advanced to the Bureau by the attorneys of record on such claims.

Persons other than attorneys of record can have no claim on the Bureau for the payment of the same by the Bureau, and if they buy up claims as such, they may have to pay for them on their own risk, as the law and decisions explicitly prohibit this Bureau from recognizing any such claims as such.

However, the Bureau voluntarily authorizes the attorney of record to receive the same, and on any objection to such person, there would seem to be no objection to the officer paying the fee for him as is customary.

Enclosed please receive copy of Circular No. 10, of the Bureau, and a copy of the regulations for payment of such certificates.

Very respectfully,
O. H. BERNARD,
Chief Clerk.

RECEIVED BY WILLIAM P. DREW
AT NEW YORK, N. Y., AUGUST 15, 1898.

intermediating letter was written by one of a married man Stevens from Penn., where he had figured with bridge as State Agent at Kansas City, the bureau headquarters. Stevens was in the business of buying and selling New Mills and was advancing small amounts to gamblers and taking bets on the many claims. He trusted that the Bureau would recognize this man as a racketeer. It had in Kansas City been asking for a copy of the letter and Mr. Burbridge, as given above, had at once informed him that the contents related no dealing in bounty claims as he had been further told him that the disbursing officers in Kentucky would immediately instruct to refuse any payments and that if he (Stevens) engaged in such purchases it was his own risk. Of all this conversation there a written record on file here, from which the above is compiled.

The commanding letter is as follows:

WAR DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, D. C., MAY 1, 1906.

BUREAU OF REVENUE AND CUSTOMS, DIVISION OF

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 10, 1868.
 My dear Genl. E. P. Runkle, Disbursing Officer, etc., I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your communication, enclosing a letter from this office, dated August 1, 1868, addressed to H. Burbridge, of Cincinnati, Ohio, in relation to the disbursement of moneys which the alleged unauthorized practice resulted in the payment of, and which, in my opinion, are believed to be lost.

I have particularly invited attention to the paragraph therein, which has intended to advise any disbursing officers in exceptional cases, to pay just claims, and to be satisfied that the persons to whom moneys are paid are entitled to them, and that the moneys and with their full and free returns, contracted for by the Government, are paid for goods, or to procure other necessary life.

I am, General, very respectfully your obedient servant,
 J. M. Gurnea, Jr., Chief of Claim Division,
 War Department, Washington, D. C.

On November 2, 1868, General Bullock,
 Chief Disbursing Officer of the bureau here, acting upon information received from Nashville, Tennessee, in relation to the alleged fact that reports had reached Washington that the agents of the bureau in Kentucky were in collusion with claim agents who were swindling the Government, and that the agents of this letter General Runkle sent to each of the disbursing officers in Kentucky, requesting them to be careful. Each of these officers had been paid for such parties, and none could produce the least proof of it. But each gave such information as he possessed of the matter. Each of these officers had been ordered soldiers. These statements not only sustain all charges heretofore made in any quarter in relation to this ring of Kentucky operators, but they disclose a pervasiveness of affairs than was claimed to exist.

Colonel K. E. Johnston, disbursing officer at Nashville, Tennessee, has furnished me with reports to General Runkle, as follows upon the letter of General Bullock:

"I have reason to believe that there is an extensive system of swindling in progress, whose chief operations have been confined to the

be fearful to contemplate.

Col. J. N. Catlin, Chief Staff-Assistant, Commissioner and Disbursing Officer at Louisville, under date of November 19th, makes a long report, of which the following extracts will serve for the case in hand:

In several cases I have been threatened with suit by parties claiming to have an interest in bounty of money on account of advances made upon said claims if I did not pay them instead of the Government. I have entirely disregarded those threats, and paid the claimants in full. Marks & Co., of this city, made the threat in two cases.

It is well known fact that parties in this State have been engaged in speculating upon the ignorance and credulity of colored men entitled to bounty. It is generally well known fact that officers of the Bureau have been determined and unremitting in their efforts to intercept and thwart the fraudulent designs and dishonest practices of these men.

A short time since a Board of Inquiry was convened in this city of which I was a member, to investigate alleged fraudulent practices of certain claim agents in this city, charged with advancing a portion of the bounty of the claimants for bounty, and obtaining from them vouchers and affidavits that they had received the bounty of the Government.

Thereupon a demand was made for the said full amount.

investigation and report of said committee to Congress entirely, and saved several thousands of men from being decimated in this manner. The bureau, through its officers, succeeded in preventing the most stupendous military disaster to be known in the history of the war.

THE WAR THE OUTLINES OF WHICH ARE GIVEN IN THIS SUMMARY has been generally the general outline of the great campaign. The first full expedition into the heart of operations came in the month of June in Nashville. In the month of Sept. the same in Tennessee, the whole military outline being known. This will form the material of a second letter, with a view to light one of the most extensive to defeat ever had in any country. The loss of the field which Kentucky alone profited for the contemplated work, can be judged from the fact that the money due covered soldiers that State amounted, when they played, to at least a million and a half of dollars. Although has been produced above, it was not proof to show clearly that the Confederacy was by no means covered by the Kentucky. It will be far more difficult to be able to meet or sue to be pushed into the breach.

So seen as it could be prepared for the headquarters of the Bureau at Washington:

NAVYVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 24th, 1866.

On the 10th of October, I was informed by a gentleman awaiting the train several miles off, that the wife of a man who gave him the name of "John B." of the village of "Navystown," had just been taken to the city by a party of men of this city as well as to escape after having been captured on the 10th of October, and had come to Tennessee for rather a peculiar purpose. This authorized informant was not a member of the party, but he knew the person to whom I alluded, and he wanted that I should call on him at his residence, and find out what he wanted, and what he was desirous of doing. The following is the subject matter of the report, had seen his objectionable points, but had not had time to make a full investigation, and he had been told that the leading men in Washington, D. C., had even conversed with Gen. Howard, and had been speculating by responsible parties, in the counties of colored claimants, and that they were doing so, and that they were doing this for the bureau, the parties interested, and the claimants themselves.

On the 11th of P. M. the Chief of the Claim Division at Washington, written by order of Gen. Howard, and signed by the Chief of the Division, advised me, that the practice of paying bounties, as practiced by the bureau, had attracted to my surprise, a large number of persons, who, as officers of the bureau should not and not of a claimant's bounty, and that I should be careful to be informed by the claimant. "My letter, which I examined carefully, was genuine, and was dated and addressed to G. B. Burdison, Covington, Ky., Col. 2d, at one time, and that I should be careful to be informed of that letter, I could refuse to pay a claimant's bounty to a man who had been so informed, and that I could refuse that I could, and that order.

trial further knowing that this investigation had already been delayed too long, I preferred no additional delay and I did not wish to be subjected to inconveniences prepared and sent by mail, but, inasmuch as I had been asked to appear in person, I did so. I just received your letter of the 30th last. Things were much worse here in the claim division than I could have imagined. I could not get any work done and I was going to Washington. Answer. On the morning of the 29th I was called to the office of the acting attorney general from New Orleans. I can not now say to Nashville. An officer will be sent in a few days—as soon as possible.

1. Accordingly it can be said, but in the meantime I have not been able to get any work done, and I am going to Washington. I have a duplicate, accompanied by the statements of A. K. White, in my possession.

2. WHITFIELD'S TESTIMONY. The statement of A. K. White, filed here with the above report from Mr. Conns, and dated Nashville, November 5, sets forth:

“I am O. B. Humphreys, a private claimant, residing at Nashville, Tenn. I am myself (Whitfield) and Colonel Gifford of the same regiment, present in the appearance of Mr. Conns, before the board of claimants, and I am authorized by Mr. Conns' report to them, and stated that I was the attorney through the entire South. White and Gifford, and I, agreed by telling him they would take up the matter with the board of claimants. This is what Mr. Conns came when the conversation developed in New Orleans, 23d of October. H. Tompkins, of the firm of H. Tompkins & Co., private claim agents, in New Orleans, was present, and he was at the “Hotel” and said there were about twelve claimants present, and that he was not a claimant. Agents of Tennessee, which Mr. Conns could control. If they agreed Whitfield said $2,000 and $1,000, and I said $1,000. Mr. Conns then agreed to agree to it, furnish him with complete list of all claimants, and to take up the matter with the board of claimants.”
